A Cold Reception.—The Petersburg

Progress says: "Senator Wilson, the Radical candidate for Vice-President, was announced to speak at the cars, we are pleased to state so few colored persons were at the depot to meet him, that he did not venture to leave the cars. Only a few days since, he went to North Carolina to canvass the State, but from all accounts, he met with such an unfavorable reception there that he bid adieu to the Old North State. His attendant tried to pass him free over the Petersburg railroad upon the ground that he would be the next Vice-President, but the conductor was too smart to be taken in that way, and demanded and received the regular fare. The story speaks for itself, a candidate for Vice-President driven from a State by a cold reception, and then, through an agent, attempting to travel free, on account of his prominence."

SOMETHING NEW.—We have been shown in miniature form the new cotton and hay press, invented and patented by T. B. Wait, Esq., of Salem, Oregon, the brother of our enterprising and esteemed townsman, S. Douglas Wait, Esq.

This Press patented June 27th, 1872, is a valuable acquisition to the farm.
It is on wheels, and may be drawn through the meadow by one horse.
The fresh cured hay or cotton may be pitched into the press as easily as on a wagon; as soon as the press is filled the horse is detached and hitched to a lever attached to the machine, and in an instant the hay or cotton is compressed, the cords fastened around it, and the bale ready to be taken from the press. It is certainly one of the most complete labor saving machines we ever saw.

RELIGIOUS.—Rev. John Mitchell will preach in the Baptist church to-night.

VOL. I.

RALEIGH, N. C., THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 25, 1872.

NO. 125.

IN AND AROUND THE CITY.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Register.

Register to-day if you have not done so.

See the notice of Wanted—"two boys."

Registration is progressing very slowly.

Let every white man register without delay. Do it to-day.

John G. Williams and family left for Beaufort yesterday morning.

Secretary Delano and Col. I. J. Young left for Fayetteville yesterday evening.

Register at once, if you don't know positively that your name is on the book.

REGISTER your own name, and then see that your neighbor registers his.

The leading radicals lights of the county were not at Delano's Pow wow yesterday. We do not blame them.

We were pleased to see in our office yesterday our talented young friend, W. B.
Martin, Esq., City Attorney of Norfolk, Va.

Another grand Ball and Regatta at the Atlantic Hotel at Beaufort. We shall say more about it hereafter. In the meantime see the advertisement.

Owing to the Pow wow and other important duties that commanded the attention of "Ye, local" yesterday, our matter to-day is necessarily cut short.

We learn that 97 negroes were registered in Western Ward yesterday, that were not registered in the election in May. The County Executive Committee should be on the alert for frauds.

The Grand Radical Delano Pow-wow—Extensively Advertised as the Great Day of the Campaign.

Ninety Seven Acres in the Procession to Lovejoy's Grove.

NOT A SINGLE WHITE FACE SEEN IN IT.

ARRIVAL OF THE SPEAKERS.

THE AUDIENCE ESTIMATED AT THREE HUNDRED AND FIFTY.

Seven-Eighths of Whom Were Negroes.

BUT LITTLE ENTHUSIASM.

Yesterday was the day set apart by the faithful, as the big day of the campaign. Handbills had gone forth to every section of the State, the Radical papers had extensively advertised the great event that Secretary Delano, of Grant's Cabinet and other distinguished speakers would address the people at Lovejoy's Grove, near the city of Raleigh, where accommodations would be made to entertain 5,000 visitors. The Enterprise, that is generally good at guessing, but never guesses right, guessed there would be over 5,000 persons present,—but to come back to the matter.

At 11 o'clock the Oak City Brass Band sounded the assembly in front of Metropolitan Hall where the procession was formed. After marching up Fayetteville, down Morgan to Salisbury, along Salisbury to Edenton, and down Edenton to the National Hotel, which point they reached with NINETY SEVEN negroes in the procession, to receive the speaker and distinguished guests.
We were at the National when the procession arrived, and made the count.
General Abbott was there—Supervisor Perry was there—Jno. B. Neathery was there—Col. Ike Young was there. Farriss came with the procession and was the only white face in it. Gen. Abbot saw the procession, we called his attention to it, his countenance fell, doubtless he thought of the effect that it would have upon Delano.

We thought of it, too and felt sorry for him. Gen. Abbott left the scene.
Neathery and Jenkins took a private confab in the corner of the porch. Supervisor Perry became restless—walked the porch rapidly. Col. Young came gallantly forward to the rescue of the chop-fallen crew, and promptly ordered Farriss to move his ninety-seven ragamuffins along. We will not do the Colonel injustice. We did not hear what he called the faithful Ninety seven, but we properly substitute the term used.

We followed the Ninety seven; arrived at the grove, found plenty of room and took our seat on the reportorial stand, in company with Messrs. Crepsy, of the New York Tribune, Redfield, of the Cincinnati Commercial, Finch, of the New York Herald, and Syme of the Southern.

Soon the two carriages containing the speakers and honored guests arrived, (but we will mention by way of parenthesis that special care was taken to allow sufficient time for Farriss and his Ninety seven Ragamuffins to reach the grove before the distinguished (?) cortege left the National). The carriages contained Secretary Delano, the speaker, one Colonel Baker, of Washington City, whoever he is, Samuel P. Phillips, Calvin J. Rogers, P. M., James H. Harris, colored, Jno. B. Neathery, the Governor's Private Secretary, young Jenkins, the Treasurer, or Jenkins, the young Treasurer, Hon. John Pool, Supervisor Perry and Col. I. J. Young the Collector.

On the stand were a dozen or more colored and white lesser lights, among whom we noticed the colored preacher Warwick, Mayor Whitaker, Commissioner Shaffer, Deputy Sheriff Maguin, Quent Busbee, Sergeant Pryor, the drunken negro, and several other colored and white of the same ilk.

Immediately in front of the speakers stand was Shindorok Jones, the convicted Radical Kukulux. Keith, the dissenter, Nowell, the deputy sheriff, and about one hundred and fifty of colored market house loungers. After some blowing and drumming by the band during which time the stragglers came up, Samuel P. Phillips came forward and introduced to the audience, of four hundred at the highest estimate, seven-eights of whom were negroes, the Hon.

Secretary Delano, whom he said was better known to the audience as a member of Grant's cabinet; that he had used his co-operation in the great "Let us have peace" policy, &c. Mr.
Phillips said that he deemed it unnecessary to ask for the speaker the undivided attention of the audience, he knew that the speaker would have it, &c.

The Secretary came forward amidst a weak show of applause, and proceeded to harangue Farriss with his NINETY-SEVEN, the distinguished (?) guests, the stragglers that came up, and the handful curiosity struck Democrats.

The Secretary seemed much chagrined at the small audience before him, and it was apparent to every one he was surprised, mortified and disgusted. He spoke for at least a half an hour without arousing the slightest enthusiasm, or even receiving a response or any applause from his audience of negroes.
His subject was not only stale and flat, but the delivery was poor and without vim or feeling, proceeding doubtless from the cause above stated.

The Secretary first proceeded to examine the history and condition of the Republican party. He said that not only in North Carolina but throughout the country there are new combinations in politics, proposed and founded on the most unwarrantable charges against the Republican party and its administration. In his long and stale defence of these charges, he labored hard to find a name for the opposition party. Said if they would only suggest a name he would call it by that name. He could not call it Democratic, for Sam. Phillips had told him that Senator Schurz had said the Democratic party was dead. He could not call it the Greeley party, because they would charge him with saying it was not so, and he could not call it Liberal Republican, for then he would know that he lied himself.
He then proceeded to tell the old anecdote of the hooster swallowing the oyster that would not lie on his stomach, which he did very badly, and made a very disgusting application, to say the least, in becoming a cabinet officer.

He claimed that the Radical Republican party, that which he advocated, had its origin soon after the repeal of the Missouri compromise, its single purpose being to prevent the spread of slavery into the territories, and that it had no hand on slavery in the States.
He then makes for it a history to the present time, in which he claimed for it, the accomplishment of everything that advanced the progress of the country. Before he got through the history of the party, it became very apparent to him that something must be done to arouse the enthusiasm of his audience, or his great speech, which doubtless had been the work of weeks, would fall still born; so after a few facetious remarks, in which he called his audience, "You black rascals," referred to Hon. John Pool as "this fellow over here," he opened on Ku-Klux. It was indeed a happy hit. To those who have had an opportunity of seeing for themselves, it is unnecessary to describe the peculiar glare of a negro's face when a Radical speaker. He is then all eyes and all ears. The Secretary saw the point and improved this opportunity by keeping his audience spell bound for a short period at least.

Leaving the Ku Klux, he let in upon the results of the Republican party, and thence upon the financial policy of the administration, which we evidently too deep for his ignorant audience, a fact which compelled him to resort to some expedient to arouse his stupid hearers, and accordingly called upon them to send up three cheers for Grant. This was plain English, and the shout that went up, even the cake hucksters and women joining seemed to have pleased the Secretary much. He said to them, that he wanted to see if they had voices; that they seemed to be dumb.

His speech was already prepared, in fact had been printed, a copy of which he had before us, but as it was prepared 5,000 white men, which he certainly expected to meet in the Metropolitan city of North Carolina, especially after having been so extensively advertised, and not a small crowd of 300 or 400 negroes, he was entirely thrown off his track, and the rest of his speech was as striking in the dark.

Had the Secretary spoken "his piece" he might have done well and acquitted himself creditably, but his warm party friends, John Pool, James Harris, Ike Young and others, we must think were grievously disappointed in the effort of the cabinet officer.

We can conscientiously assert, that we have frequently heard on a muster ground at a remote precinct in Warren county, a much better political speech from a plain old farmer than Secretary Delano's harangue yesterday.

We will not worry our readers with a further report of it, in fact, when he turned to John Pool and spoke of him as "this fellow," we lost all interest, and to use a gaming phrase, "gave up the deal."

After speaking about two hours, he closed, we believe, much to the satisfaction of the intelligent part of his audience.

Hon. John Pool was the next Richmond in the field.

He said, that his predecessor having spoken exclusively on National affairs, he would address the audience on a matter in which they were more immediately concerned, viz the State Canvass.

He being charged with, and as we believe is the circulator of the infamous and false circular known as "Read and Circulate" we did not choose to hear anything the Hon. John had to say and therefore left the ground.

We suppose of course that his speech was nothing more than a repetition of the scandalous charges against our candidates contained in this infamous circular.

The speaking was resumed at Metropolitan Hall last night.

Quent Busbee, introduced to a motley, mixed and small assemblage, the Col.
Baker referred to above. He had much to say of Grant and his prospects, Greeley and his followers, and did no damage to the latter or any good to the former, James Harris was next trotted out, and as usual delivered himself of abuse and vituperation. He denounced Gov. Walker of Va., as the low and infamous carpet-bagger, when no political enemy of this gentleman in Va., during his campaign or since has ever dared to say as much.

James closed at 11 o'clock and the motley crew disbanded.

commend it to the public for its simplicity, beauty as a piece of furniture, and as a

It is a "time saver." We have made with over one hundred garments, large and small, including Pants, Coats, Dresses, &c., some of which were heavily trimmed, two

NORTH CAROLINIANS, WORK AND VOTE.

Only one week to the election!
Only one week to work for the political salvation of your State!

Only one week to see your neighbors, and persuade them to come out and vote against the rule or ruin party!

Only one week to arouse the lukewarm, to cheer the despondent, to inform the ignorant, to encourage your friends and inspire them with zeal and enthusiasm!

North Carolinians, are you doing your duty—your whole duty?

The eyes of the people of the whole country are upon you.

The friends of civil liberty and good government everywhere, are watching, with bated breath, the great impending struggle in this State.

Eminent orators from other States are in our midst, imploring and beseeching you to be true to yourselves and to your country.

Never before has an election excited such universal and intense interest in the United States.

Wilson, the Radical candidate for Vice President, stated in his Wilmington speech, that North Carolina in August, would virtually decide the Presidential election in November.

The public press, both North and South, are devoting much space to the canvass in this State, and all acknowledge the great moral effect a victory for either party would have on the National contest.

A grave responsibility rests upon every citizen of the State—a responsibility which no one can escape.

Each one is answerable to his country, to his conscience and to his God, for the manner in which that responsibility is met and discharged!

ONLY ONE WEEK TO WORK IN!
Give seven days to your country!
WORK FOR NORTH CAROLINA!

Work, to redeem your State from overwhelming ruin!

Work, to lift her up from the dust of poverty and degradation.

Work, to defeat her political enemies!

Work, to avenge your wrongs, to repudiate the thieves and swindlers, to confound your betrayers, to preserve the honor and character of North Carolina!

Work, to uphold the principles of our government and free institutions.

Work, against despotism, fraud, extravagance, ruin, RADICALISM!

Work, faithfully, vigilantly, unceasingly, until sun set on the 1st day of August!

Only seven days more, Carolinians! Give these days to your State! Do your duty! The whole country is looking on!

Go to the polls! Vote early! Make your neighbors vote! BUT BE SURE TO VOTE YOURSELVES!

WATCH THE POLLS.

The Radicals are using every means, foul as well as fair, to carry the State election.

Active vigilance is the price of Democratic success.

It is reliably reported that the Radical leaders have determined to bring in large numbers of negroes from Virginia, Tennessee and South Carolina, to vote in this State on the first of August.

WATCH THE POLLS.

See that no man votes unless he has been an actual bona fide resident of the township 30 days and of the State TWELVE MONTHS.

THE RADICAL CANDIDATE FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.

Hon. Henry Wilson, the distinguished Antiquated Know-Nothing, present Senator from Massachusetts, and co-candidate with Grant, has been engaged for the last week or so, in stumping North Carolina, in aid of his own election to the Vice-Presidency. On last Saturday, he had an appointment to speak in the town of Beaufort. Our distinguished townsman, Hon. D. G. Fowle, happened to be in that sea-side village the same day. The Chairman of the Executive Committee of Carteret county, desiring that there should be a public discussion of the political issues of the day, called upon the Massachusetts Senator and proposed that he should divide time with Judge Fowle. To this proposition, Senator Wilson, intimating his consent, said that certain of the local politicians of Radical proclivities, immediately called upon the imprudent Senator and expressed their astonishment at his reported agreement to allow Judge Fowle to reply to him—it was impolitic, hazardous, not to be thought of. Thereupon the wary Wilson reconsidered the matter and declined the proposition, and when approached again upon the subject, said that the hour was late, (it was about nine o'clock at night,) that the Sabbath was near at hand, and added with a hypocritical assumption of pious motives, that if Judge Fowle and he were to begin at that hour a political discussion, they might trespass upon God's holy day—that otherwise he would be happy to accommodate Judge Fowle.

On Monday, the Senator came up to Goldsboro where he had another appointment. Judge Fowle came up at the same time on his way to Raleigh. It was thought that perhaps the pious Senator would agree to a joint discussion at Goldsboro, and so, a note was handed him upon his arrival, requesting that time might be given Judge Fowle, and intimating that if the speaking was commenced early on Monday, it might possibly be finished by Saturday night. The old puritan was fairly and completely cornered. But fear prevailed over his desire to hide his mock-piety and he refused to agree to any arrangement whereby a joint discussion could be had. The hypocrisy of the Senator was palpable.

We understand that after his refusal to divide time at Beaufort, Judge Fowle addressed a much larger audience in front at the Atlantic Hotel, than remained to listen to the dry discourse of the peripatetic Vice Presidential Candidate. Judge F. made his best stump speech.

FROM GRANT TO GREELEY.

We hear it from every side—from Grant to Greeley.

All over the country, North, South, East, West, the cry constantly comes to us—from Grant to Greeley.

Prominent Republicans, from Maine to Texas are deserting the Radical ship.

Grant electors are resigning, and declaring for Greeley. Ex-Senators, heretofore Radicals, are doing the same. Members of the Republican Executive Committees in the several States are constantly resigning and declaring for Greeley.

From Grant to Greeley, is now the shout!

The stampede has fairly set in. Radicals, white and colored, are flocking under the banner of Reform.

We have heard of one Liberal Republican in New York who has gone over to Grant! This we announced in our yesterday's paper. This individual is not generis. Prominent Greeleyites claim New York by over one hundred thousand majority.

From Grant to Greeley, will be the general cry from now till November.

A great revolution has set in. Notwithstanding Boutwell's protest, the Northern people are determined to clasp hands over the bloody chasm.

LOOK AT THE REGISTRATION BOOKS.

See if your name is on the registration books.

The Registrars are generally Radicals.

In transcribing the list of voters, they may have accidentally omitted your name.

If they have you cannot vote. Look for yourselves.

Look before the day of election. See that all your neighbors have registered.

See what STRANGERS have registered in your township.

Challenge the doubtful.

Challenge the suspicious.

Challenge the new-comers.

Stop every illegal vote!

MEANTRICK OF POST OFFICE OFFICIALS.

We have been shown a letter addressed to John Spelman, Esq., Editor of Blasting Powder, from Dr. Willis Lewis, a reliable and intelligent citizen of Granville county, in which he states that one of the infamous circulars "Read and Circulate," was sent to him by mail, enclosed in a copy of Blasting Powder.

Was this done in the Post office at Raleigh, or on the route between here and Oxford?

Let the matter be inquired into. Such conduct is infamous. It is a crime, and the official culprit should be exposed.

POSED—ANOTHER SAMPLE OF RADICAL FAIRNESS.

For persistent, willful, shameless misrepresentations by Radical newspapers and speakers, the present political campaign in this State takes precedence of all others.

We warned our friends at the commencement to be on the alert for Radical slanders and falsehoods, as such stock in trade was the only capital of which that party could boast.

Well, the falsehoods have come. Yes, they have come by the wholesale and without number. They have come thick and fast; but they have been exposed, refuted and made to recoil upon their authors.

In the 36th Senatorial District, one of the Radical candidates, W. M. Moore, of Yancey, charged one of his Democratic competitors, W. W. Flemming, Esq., with having sought the aid of Hon. John Pool, to procure him, Flemming, an appointment from Gen. Grant.

Moore stated, we are informed, that Senator Pool had written either to him or some other person to that effect.

Mr. Flemming denounced the statement as a falsehood, and addressed a note to Senator Pool, asking if it was true he had written such a letter to Mr. Moore. The following is Pool's reply:

RALEIGH, July 23rd, 1872.
W. W. FLEMING, Esq.,

Dear Sir:—Yours of 11th inst., received. I never knew or heard of your applying to Gen. Grant for an office, nor do I recollect that you ever asked my assistance in any matter of the kind. You are probably mistaken in supposing that Mr. Moore has said that I have ever written him a letter to that effect. I have not written such a letter and have no recollection of having ever heard of your applying for an office until now.

Very Respectfully,
JOHN POOL.

HEINIOUS ATTEMPT TO DEPRIVE FREEMEN OF THE RIGHT OF SUFFRAGE—INFAMOUS CONDUCT OF RADICAL OFFICIALS IN NASH.

We call the attention of our readers to the following letter, written by one of the most respectable and reliable citizens of Nash county. The information given may be relied on as being strictly correct.

This is the game of intimidation and trickery resorted to by Federal officials to carry the State for Caldwell.

Read it, fellow-citizens, and learn to what measures Radical officials will resort to affect the result in this State on the 1st of August.

Editors Raleigh News:

On Thursday last, C. F. Burford, a white Conservative, was arrested in this place by—Banks, one of the most odious and unprincipled of the Revenue Detectives.

The charge against him was selling liquor without license.

He had applied for license, and as he usually do, commenced retailing. C. F. Burford, asked him for the money. Burford replied, "I'll pay you this evening at Rocky Mount." But he did not go to Rocky Mount according to appointment.

Nothing more was heard from the matter until election time rolled round, at the time above mentioned.

The most damnable part of the affair yet remains untold.

Banks arrested, as witnesses in the case, two white Conservatives, J. W. Bass and Geo. W. Smith, and Harry Daney, a well known colored Conservative.

These men avow they know nothing whatever of Burford's case—they did not know he kept or sold liquor, even. Burford would not deny selling. Suppose he did, any number of negroes could be witnesses. Ah, there is the nub! Radical voters must be kept at home, and Conservatives sent off at election time. Four votes for Merrimon they missed, however, this time. For Burford bade his guard farewell about an hour before the train arrived, and Merrimon will get his vote.

This scheme is being worked all over the State. We say to our friends, "watch them and tell the people what a despotism we are living under."

A "law." Shades of Washington and Gaston!

Rocky Mt., Nash county, July 22.

CICERO W. HARRIS, ESQ.

We notice that this young gentleman, Editor of the Battleboro Advance, who has been contributing for some months, editorially, for the Wilmington Star, has recently taken up his residence in Wilmington, with the view of devoting more attention to the Star.

Mr. Harris is a young gentleman of decided talents, is a fine and vigorous writer, and is destined to make an enviable reputation in the editorial world. Great success, both to him and to the Star!

DELANO YESTERDAY.

An account of the Radical Mass Meeting here yesterday appears in our local columns.

Secretary Delano, of the Interior, made an indifferent speech. His chief point was his defence of Grant against neglect of duty! He referred to Hon. John Pool, who was on the stand, as "this fellow behind me."

There was a small crowd—not five thousand as the Era predicted. The number has been estimated at fifty whites and about three or four hundred colored voters.

The Courier-Journal says: "Speaking of the contest in North Carolina, the Philadelphia Press says 'this being the Presidential year, it will be taken as an indication of the drift of public sentiment.' We don't believe it will show the way that the Radical carry the State! It will certainly show the way that a quarter of a million of the public money has drifted."

THE WELL-KNOWN COLORED LAWYER, ROBERT MORRIS, OF BOSTON, IN AN INTERVIEW HERE, A FEW DAYS AGO, WITH A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE BOSTON POST, HELD THE FOLLOWING LANGUAGE:

I may say my mind long since that Horace Greeley was the man of all others who would look out for the best interests of the colored people, and am firmly impressed with that idea. I have concluded to cast my vote for him in November. I regard it as the best nomination that could have been made. Mr. Greeley has shown by his whole life that he is a capable, upright, and honest man, and that's the kind of a man we need at the head of the Government. He has always stood by the black man, and when I think how he has arisen from the humble condition of his boyhood to his present proud position by his own exertions, I cannot believe he is going to be swayed from the past, which a conscientious regard for the interests of the black man points out.

As regards the sentiments of the colored people in general, he further said: The colored people everywhere are anxiously waiting for Senator Sumner to speak out, and then we shall know how they stand in the coming contest. I may say that my action will be influenced by whatever Mr. Sumner says also. I consider the treatment which Mr. Sumner has received at the hands of the Republicans a direct insult to the colored men, whom he has always defended. I hold that party responsible for the defeat of all the measures which have been brought forward for the amelioration of the condition of the colored men, and I hope they will soon learn a lesson showing them the folly of such proceedings. We all look upon him as our tried and trusted leader. He has unflinchingly stood up for us through our struggles for our rights, and we feel confident that he will continue to defend our cause and tell us who are our friends and who are our enemies.

The following expresses his opinion of carpet-baggers and the origin of Ku-Klux:

The Republican party has spent all its time and energy in taking measures for what they call the protection of the black man in the South. But what has it all amounted to? The only result of their labors has been a lot of carpet-baggers, who have gone far to destroy every vestige of good government in the South. If they had just let the negroes alone, and let them have the right to protect themselves, there would never have been such an organization as the Ku-Klux heard of.

SIR:—The Piano which I purchased from you in September, 1870, is a very superior one. It has been frequently tested by competent judges, all of whom give unqualified testimony to its excellence. I could not ask for a better instrument.

MR. JAMES PIRSSON:—Dear Sir: It affords me great pleasure to speak of the real merits and excellence of your Pianos. Great credit is due to you for the quality of your instruments in my music room ever since last August, 1871, and cannot compel me to say that I do not know of another make which I should prefer to your Piano. The instrument keeps remarkably well in tune, and is a striking contrast to another make which I should prefer to your Piano. CHARGE OF THE DRESS BRIGADE.

Half a league, half a league, half a league outward,
Right through the mire and dirt,
Much to the beauty's hurt,
Dragged the rich silk shirt,
Half a league outward.

Half a peck, half a peck, half a peck fully:
Hire and we fly,
Right into the liquid air
Rose up the pile of hair,
From other lands sundried, Sooty as the air on fire,
Rose the brave bonnet—

What though men shout, "Oh, lie, Fortune you have squandered!"
Tears not to make reply,
There's but to reason why,
There's but to dress or die,
"Charge," to the clerks they cry—
Charge by the hundred!
